FOUR INGALLS FAVORITES.

Ingalls Park was framed in air of somber hue and its course was deep in sticky mud, Friday. Still the racing was spectacular and the movement around it buoyant and elastic. Four favorites won and the public naturally had a good day.

Dr. Sheppard's win of the fourth race was the prettiest bit of the afternoon. He was a slight favorite over The Plutocrat and won in a round and jelly sort of a way by nearly half his length from Newgatherer, who ran above his notch, and beat The Plutocrat.

Irish Lady, who has a broad, bastioned reputation as a mud lark, was in a soft spot in the eighth and a half furlongs race. She got off in front, set an up-to-date girl's pace and won in aristocratic style from Sunny.

Dorian made another of his villainous appearances in the opening race. He was backed into the niche of equal favoritism with Doctor G. Dorian got away in the first run out. He threw Barrett on the first turn. The boy escaped injury and Dorian ran four miles before he was stopped. Dorian will be barred from local racing in future. After Dorian had been excused and bet declared off Doctor G was a 4 to 5 chance. He finished a distant second to Pitfall. Bloss rode none too good looking a race on the Doctor and was suspended.

Ideal Beau won the two-year-old race and Gracie C the last event. Both were well ridden by Caywood.

Winner—Br. g. 5, by Falsetto—Marmoset.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second ridden out; third rather handily. Pitfall was by far the best. He revealed in the going and won on his own courage. The boy took the long route with him. The ride on Doctor G was bad looking. He dropped out of it on the far turn. Little Music ran a bad race. Glenoid had speed for about three-quarters. Dorian was a starter in this race, but in a breakaway he ran away three and three-quarter miles and was excused.

Scratched—Dorian, 107.

Winner—B. c. by Jim Gore—Bonita Belle.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second, third and fourth driving also. Ideal Beau was the best and best handled. Caywood punished him the last three furlongs. The Editor ran a surprising race and Elizabeth K a sparkling one. The latter was off badly and had to run around her field. The boy handled her cleverly though. Nona P was full of speed, but sprawled all over the track in the final sixteenth.
